The date of today is very special because it is 02/22/2022. This date is even more meaningful when our special paper regarding Covid-19 vaccines production [1] has got the first ISI citation [2] after exactly one month since it was published (01/18/2022). It is memorable not only because of the interesting coincidence but also because the “journey” has finally begun.

Perhaps, my hope is coming true [3].
